Frequently Asked Questions

1. How long does a claim take?

The claiming process can take up to 3 months

2. Why does it take so long?

The claiming process takes about 3 months because the administrator is required to wait for the last contributions to be received, as contributions are paid in arrears. The funds then have to be disinvested and go to SARS for tax clearance.

3. How and where do I hand in my documents?

4. What must I do to ensure that I receive my benefit statement?

Members must update their personal information on a regular basis. Standard “member update details” forms need to be completed in order for us to update your details correctly. If not, your benefit statements may be forwarded to the physical/postal address on record at the Bargaining Council.

5. What is a beneficiary nomination form, and why do I need to complete it?

A Beneficiary nomination form contains details of your nominated dependents/beneficiaries, who can be contacted in a case of death. If the member can't be reached, nominated members are contacted to assist.

Hollard Beneficiary nomination Form: Death/Disability benefit fund.

Verso Beneficiary nomination Form: HBSI Pension Fund.

6. Why must I update my personal details regularly?

Notify us of any changes in your marital status, physical address and contact numbers, for us to update your details to ensure you receive communication from us about your fund.

7. Why do I need to submit proof of my income tax reference number with a benefit claim form?

We need the proof to make sure the tax reference number is correct for the tax directive purposes.

8. Why must my previous employer sign and provide banking details on the benefit claim?

Your previous employer must sign your form, to confirm that you are not working there/on rent – a – chair/retired. Banking details of previous employer are not required.

9. Why do you require a full settlement divorce agreement from me?

The divorce settlement agreement informs the administrators of the settlement agreed upon, that needs to be honoured in terms of legislation.

10. Who can assist me I can't get hold of my previous employer to sign my benefit claim form due to the fact the employer; has moved overseas/has passed away/telephone numbers are invalid/moved addresses/closed the salon.

Write a letter to the Principal Officer explaining your situation and submit this letter with your original claim form. We will send this to the Principal Officer and ask if he can investigate and sign on your previous employer's behalf.
